

Chad Shenouda

Director of Finance

cshenouda@be-law.com

Tel- (408) 291-2752

SUMMARY

Chad Shenouda is the Director of Finance with Bergeson, LLP. Chad is responsible for providing financial leadership and guidance on all financial matters for the Firm. He collaborates with the Firm management to plan and implement the Firm's strategic growth strategy to improve profitability while continuing to deliver exceptional client service and value. At an operational level, he oversees the financial operations of the Firm by establishing, monitoring, and implementing financial policies and internal controls over all accounting functions, including accounts payable and receivable, collections, and financial reporting.

Chad also collaborates with the Managing Partner on the Firm's retirement plan and with the Office Services Coordinator regarding ongoing Firm benefits, including health and welfare benefits.